Alpine Heights. Alpine heights the love of God is shed; On Apine negats the norning red,
The flowers white and blue,
And feeds them with His dew.
On Alpine heights a loving Father
dwells.

On Alpine heights, o'er many a fragrant

The lovellest breazes breathe, so free and pure the air, His breath seems floating there.
On Alpine heights a loving Father dwells.

On Alpine heights, beneath His mild eye, Still vales and meadows lie;
The searing glacier's ice
Gleams like a paradise.
On Alpine heights a loving Father
dwells.

Down Alpine heights the silvery stream-lets flow;
There the bold chamols go;
On giddy crars they stand,
And drink from His own hand.
On Alpine heights a loving Father
dwells.

On Alpine heights, in troops all white as

E'VE fought with many men acrost the seas,
An, some of 'em was brave an some was not;
The Paythan an' the Zulu an' Burmese;
But the Fuzzy was the finest o' the lot.
We never got a ha'porth's change of 'im;
'E squatted in the scrub an' 'ocked our 'orses,
'E cut our sentries up at Suakim,
An' 'e played the cat an' banjo with our forces,
So 'ere's to you, Fuzzy-Wuzzy, at your 'ome in the Sowdan;
You're a poor benighted 'eathen, but a first-class fightin' man;
He gives you your certifikit, an' if you want it signed,
We'll come an' 'ave a romp with you whenever you're inclined.

The Boers knocked us silly at a mile, The Burman guv us Irriwaddy chills,

'E 'asn't got no papers of 'is own,

So 'ere's to you, Fuzzy-Wuzzy, an' your friends which are no more, if we 'adn't lost some messmates we would 'elp you to deplore; But give an' take's the gospel, an' we'll call the bargain fair, For if you 'ave lost more than us, you crumpled up the square.
